Virginia Military Institute

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES.
The attention of all who are interested in education, especially in the military, is called to the special advantages now offered by the Virginia Military Institute. Among these advantages are:
I. Its Distinctive Military System. This has secured for it the name of the "West Point of the South." It tends to muscular development and physical health by an enforced regularity in food, sleep and exercise. It instills in the mind a sense of discipline and subordination. It fosters self-reliance and force of personal character by requiring each student to take care of his own needs, whatever his antecedent circumstances. It is equal uniform and wholeheartedness without rigidity.
II. Its Distinctive Academic Curriculum. This embraces the study of English, History, French or Spanish, German or Latin, Mathematics, Physics, Geology, Mechanics, Surveying, Chemistry, Drawing, Law, Economics, Literature, Practical Science.
III. Its Technical Scientific Courses. Provision is made for the member of the second year to elect between the courses of Civil Engineering, of Analytical and Applied Chemistry and of Electrical Engineering. These courses are of one and a half years' duration, and are illustrated by continuous field and laboratory practice. The Department of Engineering is thoroughly equipped with all the modern appliances for thorough practical instruction.
IV. Its Distinctive System of Instruction, namely, dividing of classes into sections, whereby the students are accurately graded according to their own individual attainments. The educational work of the school turns largely on this method.
V. Its Economy. The expenses are: Pay cadets, $35 a year. Virginia cadets, tuition free, $400 a year. State cadets, $180 a year. This estimate includes tuition, board, fuel and lights, washing, room rent, medical attendance of the most careful character, clothing, books, stationery and all necessary expenses, and falls below that of any institution of this kind in this country. The estimate is exclusive of outfit, and must be paid in full at the beginning of the term, the first year being of necessity the most costly.
Degrees B. A. and B. S. conferred in course.
For further information and catalogue apply to
GEN. E. W. NICHOLS, Lexington, Virginia.
Next session opens September 5th, 1918.
